Yes - you can still sign up and go to the 2013 National Jamboree! There are open spots for scouts to join the Dan Beard Council Contingent and for adults and scouts over age 16 to join Jamboree Staff

.

Scouting's next century comes alive with the 2013 National Jamboree held at Scouting's new pinnacle of high adventure, the Summit Bechtel Family National Scout Reservation. 280 youth and 40 adults will have the opportunity of a lifetime to usher in a new era of Scouting at this inaugural event. Youth can join us and attend with the Dan Beard Council's Jamboree Contingent and adults are encouraged to serve on staff if they so desire. For the first time in National Jamboree history, Venturers will be a part of the National Jamboree opening the door for co-ed participation.
Find out more by exploring our site, but for a real adventure, sign up today!

If you are signed up for the jamboree, Medical Forms were due April 12th. and Activity Selections closed May 14.

Forms, Forms and Forms. The National Jamboree now requires more written consent forms. Please see: https://summit.scouting.org/en/Jamboree2013/Documents/Medical-Consent-Acknowledgement-Consolidated-Form.pdf . These will be required to be in place before heading to WV. If you have any outstanding items, please contact your National Jamboree Scoutmaster.

We will be broadcasting information from the Summit during the Jamboree from our Facebook Page: DBC National Jamboree

Check back often. New information is added all of the time...