

Online Registration for Resident Camp!

Sign up for Cub Resident Camp after January 30 by going to the home page then to "Resources" click on the calendar, month and date you want to attend and register your pack. You will need the following information to register: Cub Scouts Name, Rank of each scout (pick themed areas according to rank), t-shirt size for each person attending including adults. You will also need the family dinner total for the last day of camp and the total for the pack, this will include parents and siblings. All are welcome to attend! Once all of the required information is collected for each scout you will be ready to register your pack to attend Resident Camp.

The Dan Beard Council recommends attending Cub Resident Camp as a Den or Pack to strengthen your unit program, youth and adult relationships, and to guarantee enough qualified leaders are available to serve your youth. You can sign up for Cub Resident Camp as a den, a pack, or as an individual camper. Individual camper will also register online and will need the same information before being able to complete the online registration.

Individual Campers are Scouts that are not attending with their Pack due to Pack non-participation or a scheduling conflict. □

The process for Individual Campers is as follows:

You will fill out the Individual Camper Form found on the "Forms Page" in this site.

You will complete the registration in full and submit with the payment of $tba before May 11,
After May 1, $tba.

Other paperwork that may be needed is a "Special Diet Form" if needed, "Family Night" payment and form or you can register and pay on the day of arrival.

When the paperwork is received at the Scout Achievement Center your son will be reserved into the session requested. You will receive an email (if provided) confirming your son's registration.

On the day of arrival at camp your Scout will be assigned with a Unit that has the leadership needed to support a 1 to 5 ratio.

The Camp Staff will assign him to a Pack.
