

Membership Fees

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 05 September 2013 18:57 - Last Updated Thursday, 13 February 2014 15:42

Letter from Dan Beard Council:

We would like to share with you some upcoming changes regarding membership fees. Last week Dan Beard Council

Please keep in mind - that 100% of the registration fee goes directly to the National Office and that Dan Beard Council

The national organization, the Boy Scouts of America maintains a strong financial position. That in order to

Additionally, Dan Beard Council has learned that the participant insurance fee has increased in order to

For unit leaders who are actively preparing for 2014, this means the total cost of Scouting per member is

As always, our focus is

August 26, 2013
To: Scout Executives
From: National Board
Subject: Participant Insurance

Subject: Participant Insurance
Dear Sirs: For many professional Scouter leaders across the nation gathered in Washington, DC, for our annual Troop Leaders meeting. Whether we are new staff to you, or I am to share with you exciting changes regarding membership fees for our national program.

leaders of this country both locally and nationally by combining

Membership fee increase letter from the National Office

Participant Insurance Fee Increase Frequently Asked Questions

What is the participant insurance fee?
The participant insurance fee is a fee that is assessed to the Scoutmaster, Scoutmaster Assistant, and registered youth and staff of all units in the United States. It is used to help pay for the cost of the National Board's liability insurance and other liability insurance for all members.

Why is the fee increasing?
The fee will be increasing to help the insurance fee at the same time as well as to help pay for the cost of the National Board's liability insurance and other liability insurance for all members. The fee is being increased to help pay for the cost of the National Board's liability insurance and other liability insurance for all members.

Is the fee increase retroactive to the start of the insurance policy or to the start of the year?
The fee increase is retroactive to the start of the insurance policy. The fee increase is retroactive to the start of the year.

When will the fee increase go into effect?
The fee increase will go into effect on January 1, 2014. This fee increase will be used for the following year.

How will the fee increase be paid?
The fee increase will be paid by the Scoutmaster, Scoutmaster Assistant, and registered youth and staff of all units in the United States. It is used to help pay for the cost of the National Board's liability insurance and other liability insurance for all members.

What does the fee increase do for me?
The fee increase will help pay for the cost of the National Board's liability insurance and other liability insurance for all members. It will help pay for the cost of the National Board's liability insurance and other liability insurance for all members.

When will the fee increase be implemented?
The fee increase will be implemented on January 1, 2014. This fee increase will be used for the following year.

Membership Fees

Written by Administrator

Thursday, 05 September 2013 18:57 - Last Updated Thursday, 13 February 2014 15:42

Participant Insurance Fee FAQ's and additional information